G. A. Manhard

Badly Injured

G. A. Manhard, manager of the Western Canada Flour Mills elevator, met with a serious accident on Tuesday morning for the purpose of unloading at the elevator. When the driver was asked to stop his team ahead, they backed up instead and Mr. Manhard's head was badly crushed between the wheels of the two wagons. He was at once removed to his home and medical aid summoned. While the extent of his injuries is not exactly known, he is resting easily at latest reports, and hopes are entertained of his early and complete recovery.

Curling Club

Roused to Action

A curling meeting was held in Campbell's hall on Monday evening when steps were taken to get things under way for the curling season. An effort will be made to raise sufficient funds to provide for the rink, providing a caretaker and purchasing several pairs of curling stones. It is hoped the response to a canvass for new members and shareholders will be general on the part of those interested in having such an excellent means of recreation in the village.

Bandits Sentenced

In Saskatchewan

Bill Bradshaw and John Frichow, two of the four bandits who took part in the holding September 25th at Barrows Man, were sentenced on Wednesday at Melfort by Mr. Justice Taylor to seven and eight years, respectively, with hard labor. The two were captured after several days fighting with the provincial police, their companions being burned in a hay stack. They were charged with shooting with intent.

New School Vans

On Monday

The new school vans will leave for the first time on Monday. C. E. Anderson and P. H. Maynard will drive the vans on the two east routes, and F. Alder and E. Fisher the two west routes. It is anticipated the new vehicles will furnish a satisfactory solution of the pupil transportation question.

Send-Off For

College Students

Mrs. Lee Groves gave a farewell party for her sons, James and Lewis, who are leaving for the Provincial School of Agriculture at Chesholm in the near future, on Wednesday evening. A large number of the young people of the neighborhood were in evidence and an extremely pleasant evening was spent by those present, games of various kinds and dancing being indulged in.

Nurse Madden and brother, of Carmanag, were guests of L. W. Adams on Tuesday, taking in the Women's Institute dance.

Masonic Hall

A Possibility

Local Masons have in view the erection of a Masonic Hall as a possibility of the near future. The matter is now being canvassed and if a favorable view is taken by the individuals concerned steps will be taken to get the proposition under way at an early date.

It would appear that the sugar barons have found some other way to achieve the result to a great extent that was foisted by the rescinding of the board of commerce order by the government. At any rate sugar is still higher in Canada than in the United States, despite the difference made by exchange.

Almer's idea to supply rain for agricultural districts. An aerial irrigation company is being planned by A. L. Cole, and his son, Captain Homer Cole, formerly of the Royal Air Force. MCKENZIE KING'S VISIT

There seems to be a general impression that the visit of Hon. McKenzie King to the west has done a great deal to bring the different progressive groups into alignment, or at least paved the way for such union. If any success against the present administration is to be achieved it will be by such a union.

SAVE THE FREIGHT

The increased cost of freight and passenger transportation, coming at a time when prices were falling in almost every other direction, is receiving considerable attention from those adversely affected, and if this consideration should result in it should, in the curtailing of travel and the needless transfer of commodities the final outcome might be made to result in more or less of a dead heat between the dispenser and purchaser of railroad transportation. There was no justification in the latest increases in the pay of railroad employees nor the consequent increased costs to the people. The peak of high prices had passed when these concessions were made.

THE REFERENDUM

Premier Stewart's promise of a bone dry province in case of an overwhelming vote against inter-provincial traffic in liquor can in no sense be considered invoked by the result of Monday's vote. The plurality achieved in the province is so far from an overwhelming verdict for a bone dry province that any drastic action on the part of the government in the bone dry direction is hardly possible without a further mandate. Had the issue been a clearer one a different result might have been achieved, but a vote against inter-provincial traffic, when the class of liquor handled was in the majority of instances exceptionally poor for the price paid, can scarcely be considered a vote for a bone dry province.

That some action is necessary to adjust the evils of the present prescription system, and that such action is up to the legislature, is conceded on every hand. The issue that will be proposed is bound to be a matter of conjecture until the matter is up for consideration by the legislature. In the meantime the fact that all liquors disposed in the province will be handled by the government may be regarded as a step in the right direction.

"Peachy complexion, ruly life and fragrant personalities cost the women of the United States $750,000,000 last year, according to luxury tax figures" said a recent news item. This would seem to afford a chance for a reform movement, and a referendum to abolish the sale of this class of merchandise, except by prescription, should prove almost equally as beneficial as prohibition. If the referendum ever carried. But it is likely to be found that while women may be useful to promote legislation restricting the liberties of the men, they will not carry the reform movement into their own territory.

Terence McSwiney, Lord Mayor of Cork, is dead after a hunger strike of over seventy days. While we may be amazed at the obstinacy which would lead a man to starve himself to death as a protest against being imprisoned, the supposed patriotic fervor of the hunger strike will not impress the British public. If the authorities were to submit to intimidation even of the extreme Saskatchewan and Manitoba both voted for provincial control by majorities practically the same as Alberta, about 10,000 majority being credited to these provinces. The city of Winnipeg voted "No" by a majority of 6,382.

It was expected that women voting for the first would pile up big majorities on the dry side, but it

Every possible theory is advanced to explain the vote on the referendum in British Columbia as everything or anything but a plain expression of a desire for government control of sales in preference to existing conditions. The outstanding fact is that the people of British Columbia evidently knew what they wanted and voted for it. When theorists endeavor to prove the vote was a case of mistaken identity the chances are that they know less about the situation than the people who voted.

If the economy of food practiced on C.P.R. dining cars was made compulsory all over the country the food surplus would pay the national debt in a short time. If the luxury tax on dining car meals is anything less than seventy-five per cent, the luxury taxes need revision as well as the tariff.

The sale of cigarettes has increased sixty-seven per cent. in the United States during the past year, the taxes

Tobacco would appear to be taking the place of liquor to some extent.

Four times married and three times

Through divorce and re-marriage his first wife became his third wife and a case where it has not been off with the old before on with the new.—

The regular meeting of the Ladies' Aid, was held at the home of Mrs. J. N. Beaulieu, Thursday Oct. 31. There were twenty-five ladies present. One new member was added.

A pleasant afternoon was spent in sewing after which a very dainty luncheon was served by the hostess.

On behalf of the Ladies' Aid Mrs. Frank Smith presented Mrs. George Stoddard with a lovely clock as a token of their appreciation of her long and faithful service as president of the Aid.

We would like all members to be present at our next meeting as we have arrangements to make for a bazaar which is to be held on Saturday Nov. 20th. If you are not a member, come along as visitors are always welcome.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Frank Starr instead of Mrs. J. Harper's as planned at last meeting. All ladies wishing to go, please meet at the church at 2 o'clock sharp and those who drive their own cars please bring them along.

Local & General

Mrs. J. F. Cassidy was a visitor to Calgary this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Dills are leaving for Los Angeles the first of the week.

Mrs. J. M. Moffatt's friends will be sorry to hear she is still confined to her bed.

Miss Rachel Smith is entertaining a number of school friends to Halloween party on Friday evening.

Peter Daub has leased L. W. Boden's farm for of three years. Mr. and Mrs. Boden will move to the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Sisson have moved into town for the winter occupying the residence vacated recently by A. Watson.

Karl Schroeder has purchased the N. W. quarter of section 7-16-22 from S. A. Wright. The consideration is said to have reached five figures.

W. D. MacKay, loan manager for the Manufacturer's Life, was in this district on Wednesday, in connection with loan business for his firm.

Rapid progress has been made in disposing of the J. C. Robinson grocery stock, but there are still many opportunities for the thrifty buyer. Make it a point to call and investigate.

Wheat prices jumped 10¢ per bushel in Chicago on Tuesday, the holding of wheat by the farmers being given as the cause. Perhaps a further advance might be achieved in the same way.

Clarence Davis is conducting an auction sale six miles south of Cardston on Wednesday, Nov. 3rd, for A. McCullough. Horses, cattle and farm implements are included in the offerings.

There was a good attendance at the Church of England services on Sunday, Rev. Mr. Williams officiating. The next service will be held the first Sunday in November and fortnightly thereafter.

The five per cent. savings certificates offered by the provincial government should prove attractive to those who have savings accounts. The fact that they are payable on demand makes the interest offered a decidedly good proposition.

W. H. Dupue left for Calgary on Friday evening last, where he has secured a lucrative position. Billy will be generally missed as his activities brought him into touch with the majority of the people in the town and district. We wish him prosperity in his new sphere of action.

The crossing east of the Bank of Hamilton on Main street, which has been in bad shape for some time was finished with cement half of it having been cement before, to the great appreciation of the public in general, and east end residents of the village in particular.

As a war trophy Champion has been awarded a machine gun which shows every sign of having been through the war. Mr. Moffatt, as was promised some time ago, has the weapon in hand and at present it is located in his window, where it has received the attention of the multitudes. Unfortunately, an accident has rather damaged it as an offensive weapon, and it will scarcely be available as was expected for duck hunting until repairs have been made.

H. W. Rhodes was a visitor to Calgary during the week.

C. D. Brooks is spending the winter at Walla Walla, Wash.

Mrs. W. R. Scott and family are on a visit to Mr. Scott's parents, in the foothills.

Mrs. A. Stevenson, of Calgary, is on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Manhard.

Dan Ulrich is opening a branch implement warehouse at Milo, some forty miles north east of Champion. Dan claims that prosperity is rife in the Milo district, that excellent crops are the order of the day there, and that there is a great future ahead of this point as a railroad is promised in the near future.

The presidential campaign in the United States ends on November 2nd, and a disturbing factor as far as business is concerned will be removed for another four years. Both sides claim to be confident of victory, but this is part and parcel of every political campaign. In this country the feeling largely prevails that the Republican nominee will win easily.

Men leaving the farms are going to Calgary in large numbers looking for salaried work, and the authorities there are becoming alarmed at the possibility of having to feed a lot of these during the winter. This labor surplus has been foreseen as a result of the extremely high wages demanded, and there is little doubt that unemployment will reach an acute stage during the winter months.

George Dupue says he was away from town for a week and no notice was taken of it. If George says he was away that long we are forced to believe it, because we never saw George in a lie yet. If the information had come from any other source it would have been discredited at once, on the grounds that George simply couldn't stay away from Champion that long at one time.

There was considerable stir here on Monday when the voting on the referendum took place. One hundred and twenty-six votes were polled out of a total of 186, a very fair showing considering the busy season. The result was 80 votes "Yes" and 46 "No," the majority against inter-provincial traffic of 34. G. H. Mark was deputy returning officer and H. Cooper poll clerk. The poll was held in Campbell's Hall.

What is fluctuating up and down alternately with some slight gains to the seller, but there does not seem to be much sign of permanent improvement.

W. A. Matlock complains that The Chronicle has lost track of his activities lately. When Bill was in the Flexo business we had him right under our eye. Now that he is running around with a Nash truck he gets too far away for close observation. Bill says he has been working exceptionally hard for the past two months. This may be true and we pass it on for what it is worth.

Golden Rule Women's Institute

The Golden Rule Women's Institute has been very fortunate lately in having some interesting and instructive meetings last month. Mrs. W. K. Anderson of Champion gave us the "Story of the Flag" which was greatly appreciated by those who had the pleasure to be present. This was the second occasion that Mrs. Anderson has favored us with an address and we hope she will come again. Last Thursday Mrs. George Waldon of Staveland gave a talk on "Art" and brought many of her beautiful painted pictures and china which was her own work for us to see. It was certainly a lovely collection and we are deeply indebted to Mrs. Waldon for all the trouble she took to give us such a happy afternoon.

The Institute wishes to take this opportunity to thank Mr. and Mrs. J. Archibald for their services in bringing and helping Mrs. Waldon on Thursday. We were glad to have the Vulcan Institute's visit Thursday, also and everyone enjoyed the social time they had "over a cup of tea" at the close of the meeting. The Golden Rule is giving a dance in the Alston school house Friday night Oct. 29th. Everyone welcome to the next regular meeting which will take place Nov. 4th, at 2:30 p.m., when Mrs. Erwin will entertain at the home of Mr. Jensen. Mr. D. H. Galbraith will speak at this meeting by request of the Institute on the "New Farming Methods."

The organ fund is coming along splendidly owing to the hearty response the collectors received from many of the residents in the Fireguard district.

Governments and Commissions

Canada has become a land of Commissions. There is the Railway Commission, the Civil Service Commission, the Deep Waterways Commission, Harbor Commissions, the Soldier Settlement Board, the Pension Board, while Commissions almost without number have been appointed in recent years to inquire into this, that or the other question. In addition to the many Commissions appointed by the Dominion authorities, every Province has a number of these bodies created under Provincial statutes.

Other Commissions and Boards have been created to discharge administrative functions, the aim of a sound judicial character, when Governments have been faced with problems where, for political reasons, they did not care to assume direct responsibility in administration because of the pressure they knew would be applied to prevent a strict enforcement of the law, or because of the irregularity which must inevitably result from a process adherence to the regulations laid down and through the application of strict business principles.

While not condemning Commissions as an institution in government, it is open to question whether all Governments in Canada, both Federal and Provincial, have made mistakes in a too frequent resort to them and thereby created a feeling of want of confidence among the masses of the people.

Be that as it may, one thing is at least clear. If a Government transfers to a Commission important administrative duties and responsibilities which ordinarily belong to Government itself, then it is the bounden duty of that Government to support and uphold the actions of such Commissions, except where the Commission has been derelict in the discharge of its duty, has exceeded its powers, or has shown marked partiality in administration.

Last summer, one of the members of the Board of Commerce resigned from office because of disagreement with members of the Dominion cabinet, until at last, there was no Board left in existence. Readers will recall the sensation caused by the resignation of Mr. Murdoch and the charges of interference with the Board which he made publicly in the press. The Government thereupon appointed new members to the Board. These men recently heard a most outrageous order prohibiting the importation of sugar into Canada, ordering that all Canadian purchases of sugar must be made from Canadian refineries, and fixing the retail price of sugar at 21 cents a pound, plus freight, although there were large sugar stocks in the country and sugar was retailing as low as 10, 11 and 12 cents a pound in the United States. An outraged public forced the suspension of this order by the Government pending an investigation, but it was so patently framed in the interests of the interests of the sugar industry, all other classes of industry aiding sugar and the people of Canada generally, that it should be absolutely cancelled.

The fact that in the creation of these Commissions, Governments always reserve to themselves the right of overruling the acts and decisions of the Commissions—undoubtedly a necessary precaution under democratic institutions—only goes to show that in the final analysis Governments are responsible for the acts of such Commissions.

The sooner Canada gets back to the straightforward plan of clearly defined Government responsibility in all acts of public administration, with Parliament as a free and untrammelled forum for the discussion of all public questions and grievances, and the final arbiter in all matters, the better for the Dominion.

A Long Flight

Wild Duck From New York Is Found In Alberta.

From New York state, wild ducks drift northward to Alberta according to the description found on a band on the leg of a pintail shot on the shore of Canmore recently. The description here follows: "Released by the American Museum at New York. Wild the leader of No. 3790 please notify me." Carl Jones, who shot the bird, is communicating with the museum authorities and is having it mounted. Roughly speaking, it would be about 2,500 miles from New York to Canmore.

Dress Shabbily

Lord Salisbury and Duke of Norfolk Rivals as Worst Dressed Members

A French newspaper correspondent who was visited by Mr. Lloyd George during his stay in London was surprised to see the British premier in a worn-out, crumpled blue suit of his. But Lloyd George, in thus neglecting his own appearance, is only perpetuating a great English tradition.

It has always been the pride of English statesmen to look shabby. Lord Salisbury and the Duke of Norfolk were rivals for the glory of being the worst-dressed members of the house of lords, and Mr. Arthur J. Balfour's recent appearance in the house of commons in a striped waistcoat, dark trousers, flannel shirt and brown tennis shoes, created quite a stir.

When a certain English statesman was walking with a friend in the Bavarian health resort, Kissingen, a smartly dressed gentleman bowed to him deferentially. "Who are you?" asked the friend. "He looks like a Russian prince." "Dear me, no," replied the Englishman, "that is my name."

Greek Harbor Rising From the Sea.

The remarkable shifting of Greek historical times has been lately described by Professor J. L. Myers of the Royal Geographical Society discussion. The eastern half of the island has sunk and the western has risen, and as a consequence the ancient quays and harbor works at Hierapetra are submerged, while at the west end of the island the Greek harbor of Phalassarna has been lifted out of the water, making it possible to walk on the dry floor of the ancient sea lake.

GEE, BUT IT'S GOOD FOR A BAD COLD

Nothing Can Touch Catarrh—ozone in Cough Quickly.

You may dislike looking unwell, but coughs are best cured without medicine. The modern treatment of "Catarrh" isn't a drug—it's ozone, a healing vapor full of pine essence and healing balms. It spreads over the surfaces that are weak and sore from coughing. Every spot that is congested is healed—irritation is soothed away, phlegm and secretions are cleared out, and all symptoms of cold and catarrh are cured. Nothing so quick, soothing or so pleasant as Catarrh—ozone. Beware of dangerous substitutes meant to deceive you for genuine Catarrh—ozone. Large size which lasts two weeks, price $1.00; small size, 50c sample size 25c, at all dealers.

They Cleanse the Bowels.—The presence of undigested matter in the lower bowel is the most common cause of many ills, which affect mankind. But instead of using harsh purgatives it is better to use Barlett's Vegetable Pills. Years of use have completely demonstrated their harmlessness and efficiency. They are of purely vegetable origin and while cleansing the bowels, at the same time "soothe up" the entire digestive system.

Much Building in Winnipeg.

Building work is located in Winnipeg for the period January 1st to September 30th, 1920, totalled in value $7,687,750, compared with $2,115,900 in the same period in 1919.

before purchasing a baking powder that may possibly contain injurious ingredients. Many food scientists claim that baking powder containing alum is unsafe for use in food. The mere fact that some brands of baking powder have the words "No Alum" on the label is not sufficient proof that they are what they are represented to be. Our chemists find a good many have "No Alum" on the outside but large quantities of it inside.

Teaching Birds Music

Famous Scientist Says They Can Sing Our Songs.

That birds can sing not only their own songs but ours also, has been revealed in an astonishing story told by Henschel, the famous scientist. A bird fancier with infinite patience succeeded in teaching a bullfinch to pipe "God Save the King." Moreover, a young canary learned the tune from the bullfinch. The canary then sang out loud whenever the bullfinch faltered, his little pupil unwillingly took up the refrain, though kept in another corner. If the hobby of teaching birds our favorite airs were to become popular, and these trained singers were afterwards set free in their native woods, they would be able to take the sylvan stroll with the pleasant prospect of hearing the warbler sparrow warble "Amor tauri," and the robin sing "Down on the Farm."

THE FALL WEATHER

HARD ON LITTLE ONES

Canadian fall weather is extremely hard on little ones. One day is warm and bright and the next we have cold, foggy weather. The change brings on colds, cramps and colic, and unless baby's little stomach is kept right the results may be serious. There is nothing to equal Baby's Own Tablets for keeping little ones well. They sweeten the stomach, regulate the bowels, break up ancient quays and harbor works at Hierapetra are submerged, while at the west end of the island the Greek harbor of Phalassarna has been lifted out of the water, making it possible to walk on the dry floor of the ancient sea lake.

Treat Veterans Who Were Gassed.

An attempt is being made to cure men who have been gassed in the war, by pure oxygen breathing. At Guys Hospital an air-tight chamber of glass, 20 feet square and seven and one-half feet high, has been made. Men who have been gassed and suffer difficulty of breathing will be put in the chamber for five days or more and will breathe oxygen continuously. The treatment was devised by Professor Joseph Barcroft, of Cambridge University, and Doctor G. H. Hunt, of Guys Hospital.

C. H. Sutton is selling his live stock, implements and household effects by auction on Tuesday, November 9th, Clarence Davis wielding the hammer. As will be seen by reference to an advertisement elsewhere in this issue, this is one of the biggest events in the sale line that has happened in this vicinity for some time. The offerings are so inclusive of everything needed on a farm that anyone needing anything for the farm could scarcely fail to find what they are looking for included in the list of farm effects. The sale starts at 10 o'clock, sharp, and lunch will be served at noon.

Women's Institute Stage Success

The social evening and dance under the auspices of the Women's Institute resulted in one of the most pleasant evening's entertainment experienced in Champion for a long time. T. M. Moorehouse and J. Anderson excelled themselves in the quality of music provided for the occasion, the floor was eminently satisfactory and the refreshments all that could be desired. The financial results were satisfactory, the Institute funds benefitting to the extent of some $40.00. The guests of the evening, a number of whom were from Carmangay, were unanimous in hoping that there would be a repetition of the evening under the same auspices in the near future.

Growth of The Grain Elevator

The grain elevator system has grown enormously in Canada and developed rapidly in the last few years. This growth and development have so far been mainly confined to the prairie provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan, and Alberta, but the system is attracting more and more attention in the other provinces, particularly in Ontario, where several wheat growing and shipping centres, notably Toronto, are agitating for the erection of elevators. Now is it only in numbers that the system has been such that some of the structures can fairly be termed mammoth, such for instance as those at the head of the lakes. There are, according to the Hon. George Langely Minister of Municipal Affairs for Saskatchewan, not fewer than 3,000 (thirty-six hundred) elevators in the three provinces referred to, from 10 to 60 feet high and capable of storing from 20,000 to 30,000 bushels a piece on the average, a few reaching to twice the greatest enumerated capacity. In other words upwards of 110,000,000 bushels of wheat on this be stored at the one time. These facts and figures are taken from an interesting article by Mr. Langely in the September number of the Agriculture Gazette of Canada. By the terms of the Canada Grain Act, the owners of the elevators, mostly private individuals or incorporated companies, are compelled to accept all grain offered by farmers, unless wet or unworkable with safety, hence the general and common use of the system. The elevators are all licensed by, and under the supervision of the Board of Grain Commissioners of Canada.
